USING PRIMARY RESOURCES

You will be looking at actual photographs or pictures of people who lived in the United States during the late 1800’s. We can often tell a lot about the people by looking at these sources. Record your thoughts below.

Photo #1

1. What do you see in the photo? __________________
   ______________________________________________
   ______________________________________________
   ______________________________________________

2. What kind of jobs do you think these people have? ______________
   ______________________________________________
   ______________________________________________

3. What do you think these people are thinking about? Do you think they are happy or sad? Why? _______________________________________
   ______________________________________________
   ______________________________________________
   ______________________________________________

4. How do you think these people are different from you? How do you think they are like you? _______________________________________
   ______________________________________________
   ______________________________________________
   ______________________________________________

5. Write a caption for this photo. ________________________________
Photo #2

1. What do you see in the photo?

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

2. What kind of jobs do you think these people have? ______________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

3. What do you think these people are thinking about? Do you think they are happy or sad? Why? ________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

4. How do you think these people are different from you? How do you think they are like you? ________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

5. Write a caption for this photo. ________________________________