Print Resources for Students

Nonfiction:

Fiction:

In 1881, a 12 year old Polish American girl travels from Chicago to the West on an orphan train.

12 year old Liam and family must flee from the Great Fire. Research connections included.

In 1865, 16 year old Katherine leaves her home in Wisconsin to make a life for herself in Chicago.

12 year old Dora and her 3 sisters find jobs at the World’s Columbian Exposition.

Rebekah is a 15 year old Jewish immigrant to New York City who must give up her dreams of an education and work in a sweatshop.

A family visits the World’s Columbian Exposition in 1893 Chicago.

Poetry:

Cobblestone Magazine:

The following themed issues are related to this unit. Teachers guides for many of these issues are available at http://www.cobblestonepub.com/resources/.

December, 1982       Immigrants, Part I
January, 1983        Immigrants, Part II
April, 1987          Chicago
August, 1988         American Architecture
May, 1989            Entrepreneurs of the Past
October, 1992        The History of Labor
March, 1999          Jane Addams
April, 2000          The Gilded Age
February, 2004       Tenement Life
March, 2005          Muckrakers