Choosing Information for a Report

1. From the list below, circle all the ways that would be good ways to get information about your topic: (3 points for appropriate answers)

   - Non-fiction books
   - Newspapers
   - Internet
   - Fiction Books
   - Magazines
   - Encyclopedia
   - Interviews
   - Museums
   - Atlas

Write other ways:
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________

2. What sources will you use: (1 point for each source)

   __________________________________ year _____________________
   __________________________________ year _____________________
   __________________________________ year _____________________

3. Write the year the information was published; write in number 2. Do you think the information is new enough to use for a good report? Put a check: _____ yes   _____ no (1 point for each correct date)

4. Talk to your teacher. Together decide if the information you have chosen is good for your report. Put a check here _____ after you have talked to your teacher. (3 points)

   Teacher’s Initials _____

Scoring:
Grade 4
E = 12 – 13
M = 10 – 11
D = 0 – 9