Movie Activity Sheet

Directions: After viewing “Krazy Kat and Ignatz Mouse at the Circus”, answer the following questions.

2. Name one way that this cartoon was like the cartoons that you watch today.

3. Name one way that this cartoon was different from the cartoons that you watch today.

4. A long time ago, movies did not contain any spoken words from the characters. These were called silent films. What does the filmmaker do so that you understand what is happening in the movie even without spoken words?
Use the space below to create your own cartoon. Your cartoon should contain at least 2 characters, a problem, and a solution. Be creative and have fun! Use speech balloons to show dialogue. You can cut and paste some from the next page.
